A New Season of Art and Events Opens at Tubac Center of the Arts

For Immediate Release:

August 7, 2023, Tubac, AZ. Tubac Center of the Arts, (TCA) opens a new season of art exhibits and events on Friday, August 11, 2023 with a reception from 5-7pm. The public is invited to join the celebration and meet the artists during this free reception. The new season always begins with the Members' Open Exhibit, a non-juried art exhibition showcasing the varied artwork of TCA member artists. Awards selected by Kim Roseman, owner of K Newby Gallery will be presented during the opening reception by Debbie Barrios, TCA board president and gallery co-owner at Turquoise Tortoise Gallery in Tubac.

TCA member artist, Jimmy Descant of Tucson will build a sculpture in a live assemblage performance during the reception beginning at 5:15pm. Jimmy Descant is known among artists as a severe re-constructivist who works in a style he calls 'Western Futurism.' Jimmy was recently interviewed on AZ Public Media. Watch the interview to learn more about this artist and his work.
